DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 06/20/2006 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered. The listed Foreign Patent Documents in the IDS filed on 06/20/2006 are either have not been filed by the applicant or are missing from the file, and were not available to the Examiner for review, and therefor they have not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 15, 21-23 and 26-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hekatron GmbH (DE 195 12 126 C1).

4. Claims 15, 21-23 and 26-28 are rejected because the Hekatron document teaches of a gas sensor (see Figure 6) for measuring at least one gas concentration for a vehicle climate control system, comprising: a substrate 4; an IR radiation source 5 fastened on the substrate 4; an IR detector 7 fastened on the substrate 4; a measurement chamber 2 for receiving a gas having the gas concentration that is to be measured; a shielding device 25 situated in the measurement chamber 2 between the IR radiation source 5 and the IR detector 7, for shielding a direct transmission of IR radiation from the IR radiation source to the IR detector along an optical axis; and a reflective surface 10 that has a concavely curved first mirrored area for receiving the IR radiation emitted by the IR radiation source 5, and that has a concavely curved second mirrored area that reflects the IR radiation to the IR detector 7, wherein the measurement chamber 2 is formed between the reflective surface and the substrate.

Art Unit: 2886

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

Art Unit: 2886

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
7. Claims 16-20 and 24-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hekatron GmbH (DE 195 12 126 C1).
8. Claims 16-20 and 24-25 are rejected for the same reasons of rejection of claims 15, 21-23 and 26-28 above and because all the features and limitations claimed in claims 16-20 and 24-25 are either taught by Hekatron or it would have taken only ordinary engineering expedience and/or routine skill and/or experimentation for a person having ordinary skill in the art (PHOSITA) at the time the invention was made to make minor modifications as needed to the Hekatron apparatus and method to obtain a desired result (see entire Hekatron patent).
9. The prior art cited in the accompanying PTO-892 is made of record and not relied upon, is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
